

Pave the Way Enterprises, Inc,
8116 Arlington Blvd. #306
Falls Church, VA 22042
(800) 999-9682
PTWEinc@aol.com

100 Scholars Tour
Press Release

March 10, 2004

On April 16, 2004 Pave the Way Enterprises Inc. to kickoff the 100 Scholars Tour 2004. Minority Scholars will visit Wilberforce University, Central State University, Wright State University & The National Afro-American Museum & Cultural Center.

With the leadership and support of Barbara FluAllen (Columbus East High School), Adam Porter (President Long Street Business Association) and Marcus Thomas (President MTA Consulting Group), Central Ohio High School scholars will join the ranks of the 100 Scholars Tour.

The 100 Scholars Tour is designed to expose minority scholars (minimum GPA 3.0) to scholarship opportunities while providing professional assistance with the college admissions process. The Scholars selected to make this historic trip will visit outstanding colleges and complete college admissions applications while competing for full tuition scholarships!

There will be an important registration/parent meeting April 3, 2004 between 1pm-3pm. This meeting will be held at University East Hospital's Wallace Auditorium (Taylor Ave and Long Street) on Columbus' East Side.

Pave the Way Enterprises Inc. would like to thank the Mayor of Columbus, Michael Coleman, for recognizing Pave the Way Enterprises Inc. 100 Scholars Tour by proclaiming February 20, 2004 as Minority Scholarship Achievement Day!

If you or your school would like to participate in the 100 Scholars Tour 2004 event please contact Marcus Thomas at PTWEinc@aol.com or (800) 999-9682. You may get additional information at www.MTAconsultinggroup.com.